

Guild Meeting Jan 22, 2018

In Attendance: Roya, John, Eric, Amanda, Teresa, Gail, Esther, Sheena, Anita, Gail, Carol B, Kym-su, Lisa, Hilary,

Amanda will obtain a formal contact from the City of Guelph to advise on specifics on allocation for the Christmas sale and all other sales going forward.

Spring Cheep Cheep Sale

- Seconds sale
- check with City of rental/commission fees or canvass other spaces for the sale
- May 5th or May 12th

Direction of the Guild

- New manifest will be updated on the website by Hilary/Lisa and aims should be looked at annually
- First meeting of each year we will re-evaluate the manifest and goals of the Guild

Workshops

- Annie to do talavera workshop in March
- Workshops must be booked with the City several months in advance for assurance of the space not being used for open studio or classes.
- Must check with City on studio rental for workshops
- Ideas for Lisa to explore/book workshops for the Guild
 - Raku, critiquing, taking photos, field trip, fun things with glaze, altering forms from the wheel, throwing off the hump, goblet making, Rick do a workshop and setting up a photo booth, pit firing, handle making, heather Damond, sectional pieces, carving
- March 20th first date to have a workshop at City studio

Finances

Gail to renew membership for Arts Council

- Check with them to see if we can have workshop - talks - sales - artist shows at their facility and check fees etc.

Membership is due - $30 per person

Gail to make calls to see about discounts at various suppliers for Guild members.

The Guild's bank balance is $1182.92

Website

Lisa and Eric to work together on a new website

Esther - please send photos regularly to her to post on social media. When posting on social media please use @guelhpottersguild NOT #guelhpottersguild

John's title will be Liason to the Guelph Community Pottery Centre.

End of meeting.